Other Services

Every day at Senior Friendship Centers, people share the joys of new relationships, develop healthier habits, take care of their medical conditions, and learn new ways to improve their own lives and others. Our services are powered by hundreds of volunteers who devote their time to helping older adults successfully navigate the journey of aging.

The Caregiving Place

Adult Day Services feature supervised, engaging activities for seniors with cognitive or medical issues. Caregivers are offered resources to help decide the best caregiving plan and support groups where they can ask questions, voice concerns and get information.

Center for Healthy Aging

Volunteer retired physicians, dentists, nurse practitioners, physician's assistants, nurses and clinic aides provide life-saving care to persons 50+ who meet financial criteria.

Nutrition Programs

Enjoy a meal in a friendly social setting for the 60+ crowd at the Friendship Café or arrange for delivery of nutritious meals to isolated seniors.

Friendship at Home

Friendship at Home provides supportive services such as telephone reassurance, friendly visitors and supportive intervention programs for seniors who are home-bound or unable to travel on their own.

Homeshare Program

The Home Share Program works with individuals to create a private domestic arrangement to share housing.
